P.O. Box 40553 Upper Hutt

Dec 2008

Well, Christmas is upon us already and another year shooting has drawn to a close.

This year has probably not been the best of years in some ways. We saw the sudden death of Ian Walker early in the year, he was our secretary, and a hard working one at that. Its taken most of the year for us to recover the administration side as there was so much that he just did with blowing his own trumpet. He was also a dedicated shooter, not the best shooter but always at events having a go.

The we lost "wild" Bill Rennie later in the year to a terminal illness. Bill was a very long standing member of the club, often with a gruff exterior, but on the inside a soft and warm heart. Once you got past the outside, he was always willing to chat about what he was up to (usually guns, cars or work!) or current events.

On the upside we have had a number of new members, and good turn outs to events. Action shooting events have been well attended, but also the new members are having a go at Silhouette as well, a good learning ground and also getting a bit more competitive (Look out Brian!).

Nevan ran our first training morning, and that had a excellent turn out, and lots learned.

Well that's enough ramble from me, the committee hope you have a good Christmas and new year, and we look forward to seeing you on the range in Jan.

Note: if you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact myself or other key committee members as listed below:

- Chris Parnell – President - Hm 528 4989
- Wayne Chapman – Secretary - Hm 528 8117
- Dave Gwerder – Treasurer (Upper Hutt Gunshop) 939 6184

Secretary

Calender

Attached is a new calendar of events for 2009.

Note

- Please check what days you are rostered duties for, we have tried to spread around more of the duties to give more people experience and share the workload.
- the first event is the family field day, Feb. 1st. A great opportunity to bring out friends and family to have a go in a relaxed and fun environment.
- Tuesday night shoots start again on the 6th of Jan (Marina has had a well deserved break over Christmas, well done!)

Training

Angus has come across the following website – well worth a look.

“A hint for any one out there wanting to improve your shooting is visit www.pistol-training.com and check out there drills area. I have been playing with Dot Torture. It really opens your eyes to areas of improvement.”

Various Event Results

Club 22 Champs 07/09/08

After 3 weeks of continuous rain, the gods of shooting smiled on us and the sun came out for the club .22 champs. It was an awesome day by anyone's standards and conditions couldn't have been better. Good thing too because it only lasted one day and Monday brought us rain again for the rest of the week.

Anyone who has ever shoot the .22 Match will testify that it is the hardest of them all. The targets are so small and it is just confidence sapping when your shots just seem to miss by a whisker. If it had been a full size target they would have gone down, but not those little buggers

The shoot went through as planned, apart from 2 ducks that were intent on playing chicken up by the turkeys. At the end of it all we had a 3 way tie for 1st place, with John B, Brian P, and Nevan S. all with a score of 11. It was down to a shoot out to sort out the Medals. Third place was easy. John B had gone home early so missed his chance so bronze it was for him.

So it was up to Nevan and Brian to duke it out. Five shots, five Chickens best score wins. Brian went first, but the pressure showed and he only got one chicken. Nevan rose to the occasion and despite being heckled from behind by all of us, he went on to coolly shoot 4. Hail the champ Nevan, well done.

Club Action Champs 3 August

The weather was bad, really bad, cold and wet, very wet. The weather was so bad that the decision was made to abandon the paper targets and three serials using poppers were run for the competition. Although the weather was shit the real men of KPC still came out to compete. After the competition and we had a mad shoot off in memory of Big Bad Bill. About 5 of us shot a total of around 50-60 round at one paper target in less than 30 seconds just the way Bill would have like it.

Club Action Shoot – 2nd November

The action shoot was over two causes of fire. Go Fish and Bookends. With, Bookends being quite a fun challenging little shoot. I do thank Jason for passing on his wisdom (a little to late to save me) of a better stance for strong hand weak hand shooting. It is good to see a long time (old) shooter helping out.

The shooters of the day where:

G Dick 2.17

J Mills 1.5

J Brice 1.34

Neil P 1.19

Jason 1.19 (one shoot only)

And the organiser and course selector Angus - 0.77. (In my defence two mags on one popper did not help my case )

A hint for any one out there wanting to improve your shooting is visit www.pistol-training.com and check out there drills area. I have been playing with Dot Torture. It really opens your eyes to areas of improvement.

3 Gun Shoot 23/11/08

Kaitoke turned on a stunner of a day for the combined WSRA/KPC 3 gun shoot and the sun fair belted down on us. I had a stinking headache that night and I know I wasn't alone in the getting too much sun and not drinking enough fluids dept.

Jason, as usual, had designed a fun day, fair to all. You didn't have to be holster qualified for the pistol event. On the buzzer you raced over, picked up your pistol from the bench, raced back to the shooting box, loaded and engaged some poppers and some paper targets, some of which were no shoots, then raced off lickity split to the next box down range, repeat the process again, then on to the third and final box. When you were either finished, run out of ammo, or just plain gave up, your time was noted and your penalties added to that and that became your final score. Pretty straight forward really. Sort of a "shoot the bad guy, save the hostages" sort of thing.

The idea of course is that the no shoot targets are hostages; so shooting them is a bad, bad, thing. This should be explained to Colin, who fair peppered them with a "kill them all, let god sort them out" attitude. Mental note to myself, if ever taken hostage by bad guys and Colin comes to save you, be afraid. I think he figures that if you a stupid enough to get caught; he might as well put you out of your misery.

The next event gave me a chance to renew my love /hate affair with the spawn of the devil, the shotgun. Jason had even put in 5 compulsory shotgun solid targets. Yay, my favourite! Basically a repeat of the pistol event, but with no hostages, because with the shotgun, everyone dies. Including me. Had the mandatory bruises on my shoulder that night to prove it.

The course of fire said you only needed about 50 rounds for the rifle event. Yeah Right! Most people used 2 or 3 times as that. It should have been called the Barrel bender. You could tell who had HBARs. They were the ones whose guns didn't look like they were going to burst into flames from overheating. The final 3 plates that had to be engaged were at 200 metres and had to be done standing. By the time you got to them, you had already fired a squillan rounds, your gun was in melt down mode, and so was your brain and heart rate. A smart guy would have left them and taken the 3 x 10 second penalty. But not your WSRA/KPC members. Some of them insisted on using 1 or 2 20 round mags on them till they got them, or gave up. I can tell that a scope is of no good to you if all you can see through it is smoke poring of your barrel, rising in a big heat haze. I finally gave up myself, a beaten man, when my fingers started to get burnt through my hand guards. Well done to those that got them all down though.

Anyway, enough of my babble lets cut to the chase. Below are the scores for your reading pleasure. They are based on time, stated in seconds. So the faster the time, the lower the score. DNF's and DNS's get 600. Winner of the Service Class was Jason D. Winner of the Open Class and Overall winner on the day was Gerry V. Well done to both of them. And for the rest of us its "Next time Rodger Finch, next time".

Now, as according to WSRA/KPC tradition, second place getter gets to write the report, which begs the question. "Tell me again why I am writing this Jason"
